

Welcome to Cambridge Experts

Welcome to the Cambridge Experts from the managing director, MSc MBA Israel Garcia

It is my great pleasure on behalf of all the staff at Cambridge Experts to welcome you to the company's website. A good website should evolve and develop in line with the changing needs of the communities it serves. Whether you are a student, potential student or employer a business manager or corporate client, marketer or consultant colleague, future staff member, a Cambridge Experts partner or an existing member of Cambridge Experts staff - we hope you find our site interesting and worth a regular return click.

As a full service market research and consultancy company you will find information about the range of courses we offer - from our computer courses in office software through to our entrepreneurship and business professional programmes and our bespoke training and coaching programmes with organisations and business. You will also find out about the research and consultancy work of our staff. As our name indicates, the Cambridge Experts staff has a strong focus in the detail of its work, developing very close relationship with our client in the East Anglia area and attracting many international companies helped by an increasing number of international partners around the world.

The consultancy market place is complex and overcrowded and one purpose of this site is to give you insight into the different approach Cambridge Experts takes as a leading consultancy company focus on SME's. You will see that many of our courses have been designed to blend theory with business and management practice. Our purpose is to develop people that are confident and inspired in their management practice and who will fulfil their career potential. Similarly our research work is co-designed with business so that it has policy and practical relevance to organisations.

I hope you find among these pages a good reason for visiting our site on a regular basis. We are keen to hear the views of students, employers, businesses and other agencies and should you require any further information please do not hesitate to contact us via our queries form page .
